

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

May 23, 1974

SECRET

Dear George:

I was pleased indeed to hear from you. I have managed over the years to find my way to the shores of Lake Michigan but alas not as often as I wished. My new job is fascinating - but arduous.
little time for tennis!

Larry Devlin's colleague, [] has been assisting us on NSSM 201. We are grateful for his help. A final version is being distributed very soon.

STAT

I look forward to seeing you one of these months.

Sincerely,

Donald B. Easum

Mr. George A. Carver, Jr.,
Deputy for National Intelligence Officers,
Director of Central Intelligence,
Washington, D. C. 20505.

REMARKS:

Attached for your information is a note I just received from Donald Basum (why it takes six days for a piece of paper to travel from a desk in the State Department to a desk in Langley is perhaps a question better not asked). As you will see, he gives high marks to the performance [redacted] please pass these along [redacted] and thank him for me.
